- Certain volunteer organisations and educational institutions may be eligible for gratis registration in the organisation's name. Conditions apply. For more details call the appropriate number listed above.
- Applicants must have attained the age of 16 years to register a vessel in their name.

RECREATIONAL REGISTRATION

COMMERCIAL REGISTRATION

(Please tick appropriate box)

To obtain vessel registration the applicant must:

- Supply a Boatcode (HIN) Certificate. For details on your nearest Boatcode Agency visit our Website at (www.maritime.nsw.gov.au) or contact NSW Maritime on the appropriate number listed above.
- Supply Proof of Acquisition (a copy of a Bill of Sale or acceptable receipt) for the purchase of the vessel. If you do not have proof of acquisition the Statutory Declaration on page 4 must be completed.
- Complete the Representative's Authority section on page 3 if authorising another person to register the vessel in your name.
- Provide, if the vessel is not to be registered in owner's name, signed written advice from the owner stating that the vessel is to be registered in applicant's name rather than the name shown on the receipt or Bill of Sale.

In addition, to register a vessel commercially, the following must be provided:
