Deputy Chief Commissioner NSW

(Youth &
Program
Support)

Position Description

Introduction

A dynamic and inspiring leader is needed for the voluntary role of Deputy Chief Commissioner (Youth & Program Support). The Deputy Chief Commissioner will support the Chief Commissioner, Scouts NSW in building a strong state team and continuing to reposition Scouting in NSW to a new and exciting role in the community. This will require engaging with, and energizing, the NSW Scouting community in the implementation of ambitious strategic goals, including the recruitment and retention of youth and adult members.

This Deputy Chief Commissioner role will require similar skills and capabilities as the Chief Commissioner role. The Deputy Chief Commissioner needs to demonstrate resilience in facing the challenges that may be encountered in supporting and implementing the ‘youth leading, adult supporting’ leadership model, the youth program, and the Strategic Plan. The Deputy Chief Commissioner may be expected to act in the Chief Commissioner role at any time.

The Deputy Chief Commissioner must have and embody strong personal values, consistent with the Scout Promise and Law. Along with the Chief Commissioner, they will be the torch bearer for these values, exhibiting confidence in, and a passion for the Scout Movement. They will inspire others in their own personal journeys, both within Scouting and their daily lives.

Success will be dependent on the Deputy Chief Commissioner working closely with the Deputy Chief Commissioner (Culture & Resource), the Deputy Chief Commissioner (Operations) and the Chief Commissioner to develop a highly skilled and motivated team of volunteers committed to the Scout Movement's values, and ensure that the Scout program and the quality of its delivery are excellent at all levels. This will be achieved through empowering the respective teams to coordinate activities and create an environment that motivates adult members to deliver quality programs aligned with the values of Scouting and the strategic and operational plans. The position will also have a collaborative working relationship with the Chief Executive Officer of Scouts NSW.

The Deputy Chief Commissioner will support the Chief Commissioner to:

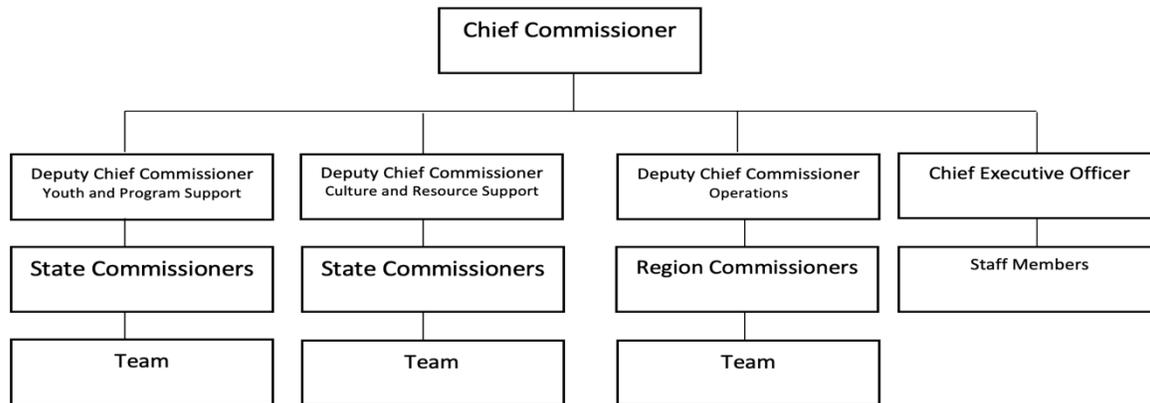

- Lead and inspire an inclusive Scouting Movement and a broad range of community and government stakeholders and partners.
- Have overall accountability for the performance of Scouting in NSW – for achieving the objectives of the strategic plan, as they relate to member experience, people & culture, sustainability & operations; and managing the change/reform process.
- Build a strong leadership team to inspire all members in Scouting.
- Develop, implement and deliver agreed business goals that reflect the Board-endorsed Strategic Plan.
- Maintain and promote an effective and generative safety culture within Scouts NSW including a robust risk-based Child and Adult Safe framework.
- Actively and directly engage with internal and external stakeholders and demonstrate resilience in facing the challenges that may be encountered.
- Attend and/or participate in a variety of State and Region events and activities.
- Encourage a culture of innovation as ‘business as usual’ in the delivery of Scouting in NSW.
- Demonstrate Scouting values, exhibiting confidence in the Strategy, and with a passion for relating with and inspiring others in their journey to personal growth within Scouting.

The Deputy Chief Commissioner (Youth & Program Support) is responsible for two key teams:

- Youth Engagement
- One Program: Providing a age/Section based support and the major events lead
- Educational Purpose: Providing support for Special Interest Areas and International
- Adventurous Activities: Leaders specialising in all adventurous activity areas
