APRIL WRAP-UP

Hey Team! It's been a busy but incredible first month in the role as your new Chief Commissioner, and I have loved getting out and about to see the smiling faces of our youth members making incredible memories, and of course their leaders and supporters who dedicate their time to making it all happen.

Watch my video message below, as I wrap up an incredible first month in the role – I would love to hear your feedback on what you would like to see in it, and what you would like to hear from me!

If you're having trouble watching, you can read the video transcript here

I hope you enjoy this new format – if you have any feedback on the new video format, or any other questions or comments, please email ask.chief@nsw.scouts.com.au

Cheers,
Lloyd

Lloyd Nurthen
Chief Commissioner - Scouts NSW

P.S. – sorry about the sunglasses, it was too bright not to wear them!

Youth Safety in Scouting

Scouts Australia NSW is committed to operating as a youth safe organisation and implementing youth safe policies and practices in accordance with the elements of a child safe institution outlined by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse report entitled Creating Child Safe Institutions.

Remember

All suspicions, concerns or allegations about criminal matters or child protection matters should be reported directly to the Chief Commissioner, CEO, State Commissioner (Youth Protection & Issues Management) or the Manager of Safeguarding Youth, Issues Management and Research at the NSW State Service Centre. To make a report you may use the online youth protection form, call 9735 9000 or email YouthProtectionTeam@nsw.scouts.com.au.

Imminent Danger

If someone is in danger NOW, the matter should be reported directly to NSW Police on 000. Where a report is made to the Police, you must also subsequently notify Scouts NSW State Office.
