MAY WRAP-UP

Throughout May, I was thrilled to see and hear about all of the extraordinary Scouting taking place not only across our state, but as far as London! Whether at the Kings Coronation in London as guests of Scouts UK, receiving an Australian Scout Award, or celebrating a year full of achievements at the ARP's, I am always excited to see the many and varied ways that Scouts are getting out there, getting involved and achieving great things.

Watch my video message below, as I wrap up the incredible month of May. I would love to hear your feedback on what you would like to see in this update, and what you would like to hear from me!

If you're having trouble watching, you can read the video transcript here
